MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES

From Washington.
WASHINGTON, July 1.—A letter from a source to be credited, dated Tampico, Mexico, June 10, says: The people of Henezima, and all other principal towns in the Henezima district, have raised again in favor of the Juaristas. The writer says the latter will take Tampico from the Imperialists, its capture being entirely feasible, as it is garrisoned by Mexicans impressed into the service, and they will not fight against their own people.

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued an order to all Collectors of Customs directing them to show the amount of money received, and the disposition made thereof, under the act of March 3, 1863.

The 14th section of this act provides that ten dollars shall be paid to Collectors by the master, captain or owner of any vessel coming from a foreign port, for every passenger, other than cabin passengers, above the age of eight years, who shall have died on the voyage by natural disease.

The Land Officers in Alabama, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi and Arkansas are to be consolidated at Montgomery, Ala., Tallahassee, Fla., New Orleans, Little Rock and Jackson, Miss.

The report in the Rousseau-Grinnell case will be made in the early part of this week. It is now believed that Rousseau will be expelled, as he expressly declared he came here for words spoken in debate.

From New York.
NEW YORK, July 1.—The joint committee of the city, State and Federal authorities have agreed to take the lower part of the City Hall park for the site of the new Postoffice, the United States Government paying the city one hundred thousand dollars.

No cases of cholera were reported to the Board of Health yesterday.

The Commissioners of Excise have received $1,108.55 license fees.

The Commissioners have been served with 280 injunctions arising out of Jorden Cardozo's.

Special dispatches state that the disbursements of the Treasury for the week just ended were eight million three hundred and four thousand seven hundred and sixty-four dollars. Navy, $1,719,023; Interior, $18,040. Total amount for these Departments, for the fiscal year ending June 30th, was three hundred and ninety-five million, twenty-five thousand six hundred and thirty-four dollars.

One million three hundred and twenty thousand, nine hundred and eighty dollars of National Bank currency was issued last week, making the amount issued this year two hundred and eighty two millions, five hundred and fifty thousand, four hundred and forty dollars.

A Relic.
We have been shown a note of John C. Calhoun's, written to Mr. Butler, of South Carolina, and by him presented to Mr. Keeler, of this place, for his collection of original letters of distinguished Americans. Mr. Butler thought them the last lines penned by Mr. Calhoun:
Hon. Mr. Butler—Dear Sir: I suppose the debate on Mr. Clay's resolutions will go on at least this week before a vote is taken on them. But should it not, I am desirous of being heard in the course of the debate. I must ask the favor of you to have them postponed to some early day next week, say Tuesday, by which time my strength, I think, will be sufficiently restored to enable me to speak.
Truly,
J. C. CALHOUN
Wednesday, March 1, 1850.
Mr. C. died on Saturday, March 21st, following—Mrs. J. J.

Violent Tornado—Cotton Planters' Convention—Test Oath at Charleston.
August 1, 1863. June 23.—A tornado, raging from the northwest to southeast, passed over the city this afternoon, blowing down houses and trees, and injuring a number of persons.

A call appeared in the Macon Telegraph for a convention of cotton planters to meet at Nashville, in September, to consider the system of free labor, and other subjects of interest.

Pending the decision of Judge Bryan of the United States District Court at Charleston, on the constitutionality of the test oath, orders were given for the reception of the writ, and permission granted the attorneys to practice without taking the oath.

A "Mixing Up."
The Washington correspondent of a New York paper gives a curious and interesting story about the twenty millions which Thad. Stevens proposes that the United States shall loan to President Juarez, on the pledge of Sinaloa, Sonora and Chihuahua for its redemption. It is stated in a semi-confidential manner by those supposed to know that John C. Fremont is mixed up in the affair, and to have strong hopes of becoming the first Republican President of Mexico after Maximilian's exit.

The Quadrilateral.
A Paris newspaper states that Marshal Magnan expressed the following opinion upon the famous "quadrilateral": "Had I the honor of being ordered to attack Venice, I should not give a thought to this traditional bogeyman. I should assault the city from the sea. I have ascertained, personally, there is water enough in the Lagoon to do this. I should be certain to take it with the flatboats and gunboats. As soon as Venice was in my possession, the four fortresses would fall into my hands like ripe apples."

Texas Election.
A Galveston dispatch of the 24th says: The Republican vote is larger than was anticipated. It will probably be one-third of the whole vote cast when the western and central counties are heard from. Travis county, the seat of Government, excepting two precincts to be heard from, gives Throckmorton 406, Pearce 336, Mr. Representative Hancock, Conservative, 215, and Gray, Republican, 212. The Conservative vote is sold for the amendments, while the Republican vote is against them.
